---------RESPONDENTS

ORDER:

The petitioner filed a revision before the Government, against the order dated 22.10.2005 passed by the Additional Agent to Government, Rampachodavaram in C.M.A.No.103 of 2005. The petitioner states that he filed an application for stay and complains that no orders have been passed by the Government so far.

Heard the learned counsel for the petitioner and the learned Government Pleader for Social Welfare.

It is not known as to whether the petitioner presented the revision within the period of limitation, or whether the application for stay has been pursued with the needed vigour.

Having regard to the facts and circumstances of the case, this Court is not inclined to grant any positive or specific orders except that the first respondent be directed to dispose of the application for stay, within a period of four weeks.

Hence, the writ petition is disposed of, directing the first respondent to consider and pass appropriate orders in the application filed by the petitioner for interim orders, within a period of four weeks from the date of receipt of a copy of this order. There shall be no order as to costs.
